COMPETITION RULES:

1. Cars will start facing outward from the center and will move in reverse at the start.
2. All cars will start with a flag flying vertically over the driver's door. After the start any car with a flag up is fair game, a flag down means the car is out of competition. Do not hit any car that does not have a flag flying. The driver is responsible to take the flag down when: Directed to by referees, the vehicle fails to make a hit for more than two minutes, or the drivers wish to remove themselves from the competition. Intentionally shutting off the vehicle during the heat, consolation or main event will result in disqualification.
3. DO NOT HIT IN THE DRIVERS DOOR!!!!!! DISQUALIFICATION WILL RESULT!
4. The arena will be surrounded by a ditch, a car stuck for more than two minutes will be considered disqualified.
5. Drivers are expected to be aggressive and will be warned once!

6. Two or more vehicles ganging up on a lone vehicle is very unsportsmanlike and is not condoned, a warning will be given to drivers and may result in disqualification.
7. The car and driver in the heat must be the same to be eligible to advance into the main events. If there are substitutions the car and driver must compete in the consolation heat to qualify for the main.
8. While the heat, consolation or main event are being run any drivers out of the competition will remain inside their car with the seatbelt and helmet on. They will be free to get out when the event is over.
9. The top two finishers will advance to the main event; all others may be entered into the consolation heat, with the top two finishers advancing to the main event. These finish positions may be adjusted on race day dependant on the total number of cars present, only the top two will be paid.
10. The winner of the heats and consolation will be determined by the:
 - a. Last car to make contact
 - b. Last vehicle capable of movement of more than two car lengths
 - c. Judges decision
11. After obtaining your registration check slot, find a pit area and do all work to be done to car, THEN proceed to check in your vehicle, after your car has received a flag you will line up in accordance to your heat. NO WORK IS TO BE DONE TO THE VEHICLE AFTER YOU ARE IN LINE.
12. The drivers and pit crew are responsible for the removal of the cars after the event. Towing fees will be levied against all violators.
