1. Pens will be available Tuesday, August 24 at 6 pm. Cattle must be penned by 8 am Wednesday, August 25.
2. There will be a limit of two pens per category, per consigner.
3. Weights will be taken upon arrival and classes will be determined by that weight. No breed classification will be used in the bred heifer division.
4. Continental and British breeds will be shown together if three or more pens of continental cattle are not represented in each division.
5. Purebred entries will be classed and judged with commercial steers, heifers and bulls.
6. No fitting, clipping or washing of the animals is allowed.
7. Exhibitor must provide own feed for the cattle at the show. Bedding is provided.
8. All calf divisions (bulls, heifers and steers) must be born after January 1, 2010.
9. Health Requirements: All cattle, including exhibit animals, must be accompanied by a proper health certificate issued by a licensed veterinarian within 30 days of the Pen Show. Health certificates must be presented to a representative of the Animal Industry Board. Health certificates will be retained by the show veterinarian. All livestock must comply with the SDCL 40-3-14 health regulations.
10. Central States Fair, Inc. reserves to management the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and regulations; and to arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions or differences in regard hereto, or otherwise arising out of, or connected with, or incidental to, the event.
11. Neither Central States Fair, the Management, or anyone helping with the show assume responsibility for accident or injury. The Central States Fair, Inc. personnel will not be responsible for any injury or loss of any animals or accident thereby.
